

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Arnold
... Installed in Top Offices
Portrait by Seeman

J. G. Arnolds To Direct Messiah White Shrine

Mrs. J. G. Arnold, 1551 Post Ave., was installed as Worthy High Priestess of the Messiah White Shrine at the thirty-fourth installation at the Redondo Masonic Temple. Her husband, J. G. Arnold, was installed as Watchman of the Shepherds.

The ceremony took place amid a splendor of Easter adornments. A large white satin covered cross with a shepherd's crook was in the center of the East with a large bouquet of white calla lilies at the foot of the cross. Floodlights cast a glow over the archway behind the cross and on either side were two large painted pictures, one of the Madonna and the Child and the other of the Three Wise Men. All of the women officers wore white formals and carried white crosses with corsages of white satin roses made by the new Worthy High Priestess.

F. C. Kremmel, master of ceremonies and a charter member of the Shrine, introduced the retiring Worthy High Priestess Helen Rosey and the retiring Watchman of the Shepherds, Lester Carlson. The installing officers, all past worthy priestesses of Messiah Shrine, were Helen Rastica, Marie Crawford, Alice Miller, Estelle Bridge, Helen Deuel, and Della Cotton.

Past Worthy High Priestess Irene Temple placed the Bible on the altar. After the officers entered, the color bearer and escorts, Phillip Hoffman II, Pamela Hoffman and Paula Hoffman, grandchildren of the Arnolds, entered with the flag. Mrs. Arnold was escorted to the altar to take the vows of office. Mrs. Helen Linsdell, sang "My Task." After Mr. Arnold was installed and escorted to the east, Mrs. Linsdell sang "Together."

Others installed were Helen Wilson, noble prophetess; George Anderson, associate Watchman of Shepherds; Cleo E. Fate, scribe; Verna Alexander, treasurer; Bertha Fern, chaplain; Ruby Underwood, Shepherdess; Anna Long, guide; Eva Jo Hoffman, herald; Bill McEwen, Tom Alexander and John Fern, Wisemen; Geraldine Rohrdanz, queen; William Bremner, king; Kathleen Ritko, Lola Reed, and Mildred Harris, handmaids; Lois Lougee, organist; Mary Anderson, guardian and Edward J. Reeder, guard.

Mrs. Linsdell sang "Indian Love Call" dedicated to the officers followed by prayer by the chaplain. The Anne B. Eastman Assn. and other guests were introduced. Mr. Arnold presented his wife with her gavel and sounding block. Dolly Hoffman, granddaughter, carried a bouquet of red roses to the east and presented them to her grandmother. The presentation of a red velvet pillow and monetary gifts to the Arnolds was made by Noble Prophetess Helen Wilson and Associate Watchman of the Shepherds George Anderson. "The Lord's Prayer" sung by Mrs. Linsdell closed the meeting. The guests were then invited to the banquet room where refreshments were served. Mabel Gates and Vi Whitaker were chairmen of the social committee.

Torrance Herald Social World

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

APRIL 20, 1958

Nine

COIN CONTAINERS . . . Mrs. Robert Voien, left, and Mrs. Barton Tatum, are shown collecting the money from 100 coin containers placed around Torrance for Easter Seal donations to aid crippled children. Mrs. Tatum is philanthropy chairman for the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, sponsors of the coin collection.

Auxiliary's April Meet at Dean Home

April luncheon meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the South Bay Pharmaceutical Association was held last week at the home of the president, Mrs. Jack Dean. Co-hostess was Mrs. Peter Aspen.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. Lee Solomon, program chairman, introduced Mrs. F. Chadwick, of Chadwick Gardens, who gave a colorful and delightful demonstration of floral arrangements, using flowers found in the garden at home.

Mrs. Dean then called on the officers for their reports. The Shamrock Ball held in March proved a great success, and the proceeds have been placed in the Pharmacy Scholarship Fund.

The month of April has been set as "rummage month," and all donations will be given to Mrs. Robert Sherrill, chairman, who in turn will give them to the South Bay Children's Hospital Thrift Shop for the auxiliary.

Nominating committee chairman, Mrs. Charles Bogolea, read the proposed slate of officers for the coming year. They are: president, Mrs. Peter Aspen; vice president, Mrs. Donald Demarest; secretary, Mrs. Ronald Holt; treasurer, Mrs. Harold Drevno; parliamentarian, Mrs. Jack Dean. Election of officers will be held in May.

Members attending were Mrs. Mmes. Aspen, Bogolea, Donald Cotrell, Sam Caramelli, Dean, Drevno, Irving Edwards, Erwin Fietz, Robert Greenlees, Holt, Roger Jackson, James Kamada, Ralph Rector, Reese, Sherrill and Solomon. Also attending was Mrs. Stan Lieber, a guest and prospective member.

The May 15 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Reese.

MISS SILVA WINS POSTER CONTEST

Miss Carmen Silva, sister of Mrs. Frank Quinn, 22309 Osage Ct., Torrance, won the first prize in the Mary's Hour Poster contest among Catholic high school students throughout the archdiocese. Miss Silva's poster is exhibited in all Catholic churches announcing Mary's Hour which will be held at the Coliseum, May 10.

Miss Silva is a junior at St. Mary's Academy, Los Angeles.

Mrs. Lanny LeVier
... Recent Bride
Portrait by Seeman

Price-Levier Vows Recited in Torrance

Miss Beverly Jean Price, daughter of Mrs. Ethel Foltz, 2075 Torrance Blvd., was married to Lanny LeVier, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. LeVier, 2124 Santa Fe Ave. in a recent ceremony at the United Brethren Church.

The Rev. Walter Stanton, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony which took place at the altar banked with white lilies and carnations. The bride was given in marriage by an uncle, Ross Price of Springfield, Mo. She wore a Chantilly lace gown. Her veil was held by a fluted lace tiara and she carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Mrs. J. G. Johnston, an aunt from San Francisco, was the honor attendant. She wore pink lace and carried blue carnations.

Miss Rosemary Foltz was her sister's bridesmaid. Her gown was of poudre blue and she carried pink carnations. Gerald Davis stood as best man and she was Lester LeVier and Gale Miller. During the ceremony Eldred Smith sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Precious Love."

A reception was held in the guild hall and the couple spent their honeymoon in Las Vegas. Both were graduated from Torrance High school and both are employed locally.

They have purchased a new home at 611 Madrid Ave., Torrance.

Voting League Sends Prexy To Confab

Representing the League of Women Voters of Palos Verdes Estates at the national convention of the League of Women Voters will be Mrs. Melzar Jones, president of the local league.

Delegates from each of 1200 local leagues throughout the country will be in Atlantic City from April 21 to 25, making decisions on league activities for the next two years.

Business to be transacted includes election of national officers for the next two years and selection of current agenda items to be studied and acted on in the next two years. Proposed items are: U. S. Foreign Policy—support of policies which promote stability, freedom, and peaceful development, with emphasis on the United Nations system, world trade and economic development, and collective security; Water Resources—promotion of the optimum development and use of water resources consistent with river basin needs.

The following continuing responsibilities are also proposed which are items the league has already studied and wishes to maintain interest in: (1) Modification of federal loyalty-security programs to limit scope, standardize procedures, apply "common sense" judgment, and provide the greatest possible protection for the individual; (2) Self-government for the District of Columbia and extension of suffrage to the citizens of the District; (3) Measures granting the President authority to veto items in appropriation bills; (4) Opposition to constitutional limitation on tax rates; (5) Opposition to constitutional changes that would limit the existing powers of the Executive and the Congress over foreign relations.

Miss Babcock Honored by Local Bethel

Miss Susan Babcock, was honored last Sunday at a reception given by Jobs Daughters Bethel 50. The honoree is serving a six month term as Jobs Daughters' Grand Bethel representative to the District of Columbia.

Moe Denton played a violin solo accompanied by the piano by Bob Nelson. Bonnie Kail provided vocal numbers accompanied by Jane Strohm.

After Miss Babcock was presented gifts from the Mothers Club and the Bethel, she gave a summary of her term which expires in June.

Mrs. Marion Grubb was in charge of refreshments while Beverly Orend was in charge of decorations. Those serving were Pearl Thayne, Jessie Fowler, Helen Alter, Ruth Kail, Jane Mascola and Velma Piercy.

CDA Slates Observance Of Birthday

Plans for the annual communion breakfast, scheduled for Sunday, April 27, were announced to members of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, at the April business meeting Monday evening.

Following 8 o'clock mass at Nativity Church, the group will have breakfast at the Wayfarer Restaurant, 2230 Pacific Coast Hwy., with a short program in observance of their 13th "birthday," according to Mrs. Joseph Terkmanny, chairman. Mmes. John F. Gitschier, Frank Weston and Richard Olson are assisting Mrs. Terkmanny with plans for this annual court event.

Mrs. George Shelton, social welfare chairman, told of the March party for a women's ward in Los Angeles County Harbor General Hospital; Mrs. Don Cowden, grand regent, and Mrs. F. W. Rick assisted her. Other chairmen reporting on their facets of court activities included Mmes. Leroy Armstrong, Leonard Young, Frank Quinn, Richard Olson, Michael McMahon and Lyle O'Hora.

Other business included voting a donation for Mary's Hour, and the election of a nominating committee, Mmes. N. G. Hayward, O'Hora, and James White. The annual election of officers will take place at the May business meeting.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Terkmanny and her committee.

CONCERT PROGRAM . . . This afternoon from 1:30 until 4 p.m., Siena Circle and the Auxiliary of Seminarian Mothers Club will present the annual scholarship benefit at Our Lady Queen of the Angels Junior Seminary, 15101 San Fernando Mission Blvd. St. Charles choir will present the program. Looking over the program are from left, Mrs. John Boyland, North Hollywood, Mrs. A. L. Larrabee, Huntington Park and Mrs. Herbert Wenker of Torrance, president of the Seminarian Mothers club. Tours of the seminary and refreshments will follow.

Photography by Crotty
PLANS WEDDING . . . Miss Valerie Jean Brown will be married to Thomas James Pillar on June 20 at the Los Angeles Temple of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. The future bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter George Brown, 22414 Susana Ave., was graduated from Torrance High School class of '55. She is employed at Douglas Aircraft, Torrance. The benedict-elect, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Pillar, 26311 Senator Ave., Harbor City, is a Narbonne High and Harbor Junior College graduate. He is employed in Manhattan Beach. After their marriage, the couple plan to make their home in Provo, Utah where Mr. Pillar will continue his education at Brigham Young University.

Pilot Club Members Attend Yosemite District Conclave

Pilot Club of Torrance has seven members in attendance at the tenth annual convention of district 18 of Pilot International being held this weekend at the Ahwahnee Hotel in Yosemite National Park. Delegates from Torrance are, Clara Dougherty, president-elect; Miss Mae Sleep and Mrs. Mary Young. Alternate delegates are Mrs. Herma Tillim, Miss Elizabeth Holland and Mrs. Joseph DeJaifre.

Mrs. Gerald Cook, president of the local club is attending the convention and is serving on the Credentials committee. Mrs. Joseph DeJaifre, as district publicity chairman, will take part in a panel discussion of club committee work for the ensuing year.

District Governor, Dr. Joy Bishop, of Oakland, presided at the business sessions yesterday and today. Included in these sessions are the election of district officers for the coming year, adoption of a budget for the district and proposed changes in the district standing rules.

RETURN TO PARIS

Enjoying an informal dinner party at the Plush Horse restaurant recently, were Mr. and Mrs. James R. Armitage, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Waite of Bitberg, Germany, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Casey, of Palos Verdes, Miss Candy Blackwood, of Compton and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Akers, of Palos Verdes.

Incentive for the party was to fete Bill Grover, who was returning to his home in Paris, France.

Delta Zetas to Meet April 23

South Bay Alumnae of Delta Zeta are anticipating a visit from the Alumnae Regional Director, Mrs. G. Leveton, Portland, Ore., for the meeting next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Eldon Wright, 7521 Dunbarton, Westchester.

Election of officers and a report on Southern California Delta Zeta Day will be on the program. State Day was held Saturday at the Petroleum Club in Long Beach. Mrs. George Furtado of Torrance was on the program.

On April 27, Mmes. Mitchell Gilbert, P. V. Cooper, Phillip Downin, and Lawrence Ivins will participate with South Bay Panhellenic at a tea honoring senior students to better acquaint them with college and sorority life.

This tea will be held at the Neptunian Club in Manhattan Beach.

YW CLASS FOR MOTHERS-TO-BE

"How to be Comfortable Through Pregnancy" is the theme of the Stork Club, meeting at the Torrance YWCA, 2320 W. Carson St., on Monday at 8 p.m. beginning April 21. Expectant mothers will learn how to carry baby with the most comfort, how to relax, breathing techniques, and post-natal exercises for that "after baby bulge."

There will be one session devoted to expectant fathers. The class is under the direction of Mrs. Alles, physical therapist of the Harbor General Hospital. All expectant mothers are invited to join the YWCA and to take part in the class. There is a nominal fee for the course. Call the Y for further information and registration.

Librarian Is Guest at Club Meeting

Mrs. Dorothy Jamieson, Torrance librarian, entertained members of the Torrance Women's Club at their Wednesday meeting with a delightful review of several best seller books. Included in the review were "Anatomy of Murder," Robert Travers; "The Winthrop Woman," Anya Seton; "Maggie Now," Betty Smith; "Green Gage Summer," Golden; "Ice Palace," Edna Ferber; "Translations from the English," Robert Smith; and "Sweet Promised Land."

Following a pot luck luncheon, Mrs. Robert Moffitt, president, conducted a business meeting.

Announcement was made of the May 7 "Headdress Fantasy" and the annual club rummage sale to be held at the clubhouse on May 16 beginning at 10 a.m. Mrs. A. E. Palmer is chairman of this event.

The club voted to send Mrs. Moffitt and Mrs. Don Wolf, president-elect, to the state CFWC convention to be held May 12-15 at the Palace Sheraton Hotel in San Francisco.

Roy Stewarts Are in Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Stewart, 235 Via Linda Vista, are in Europe at the World's Fair in Brussels, Belgium.

Mr. Stewart, president of the Stewart-Trans-Lux Corp. manufacturers of motion picture projection screens in Torrance, is in Brussels to supervise the installation of screens to be used in the State Department World's Fair Exhibit Theater. This exhibit will use the type of theater as the American Motors Exhibit at Disneyland. Eleven projection screens are used mounted in a complete circle around the audience.

The Stewarts, who left Torrance, March 24, plan a leisurely visit to most of the central European countries. They expect to return home May 10.

EASTERN VACATION

Miss Jo Fran Rubco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rubco, 2501 Sierra St., arrived home by plane Thursday from a four weeks vacation. She visited with Delores Hudson, a former Torrance resident, in Indianapolis and from there went to Pittsburgh, Pa., and New York City to visit relatives.

BENEFIT SALE

St. Elizabeth Guild of St. Philomeno parish are sponsoring a rummage sale, May 2 and 3 at the parish hall, 21848 S. Main St. Doors will open at 9 a.m., according to Virginia Hallenbeck, chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stewart
... At World's Fair

Mrs. Worgul Club Hostess

Mrs. Fred Worgul was hostess to the Beau Jardin Garden Club on April 9, at her home. Mrs. Albert Yackle presided and announced the annual meeting of California Garden Clubs, Inc., District 2-A at the Elks Club in Redondo Beach, Friday, April 25, at 10 a.m.

Alums Meet

Alpha Xi Delta alumnae members of the South Bay chapter traveled to the Hollywood Knickerbocker Hotel yesterday to meet with other alumnae members of the fraternity from Southern California.

The luncheon is held to commemorate the founding of the national women's fraternity on April 17, 1893 in Galesburg, Ill. Guest speaker was Dr. Georgette MacGregor, who discussed "Privileges Enjoyed by Fraternity Women."

Beau Jardin Garden Club will be represented by Mmes. Donald Drorbaugh, John Carrièreau, James Stadler, Kenneth Moe, Lindsay Archibald, John Beattie, and Albert Yackle. The chairmanships for the forthcoming year were announced. Plans were made to revise the constitution of the club by a committee comprised of Mrs. James Stadler, Mrs. Kenneth Moe, and Mrs. John Carrièreau.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, April 23, at the home of Mrs. Albert Yackle, 5602 Palos Verdes Blvd., Torrance.